18 U.S.C. § 1701: Obstruction of Mails Generally.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of eighteen (18) months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $10, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, it is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $100 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $2,000.00.

The fine shall be paid in monthly installments of at least $100 during the term of probation, beginning 30 days after the date of this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(JA), interest on the fine is waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Nyia May Ly, is

In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

Defendant is ordered to perform 100 hours of community service during the period of supervision.

Defendant informed of right to appeal.

Defendant's bond is exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
